

Lent Readings | 2018

If we want to know God, we need to know Jesus. At the heart of the Gospel are the events leading up to the Cross and the Resurrection.

During the season from Ash Wednesday (14 February) to Easter Sunday (1 April) we encourage you to read these Gospel accounts, beginning with Jesus' entry into Jerusalem through to the end of the Gospels. Use all your senses to enter into what Jesus and his followers went through.

As you read, let the magnitude of what Jesus accomplished sink in; let the depth of his love surround you; be ministered to by God's Spirit, so that you both know Jesus better and are empowered to love and serve others.
