

THE UPSIDE DOWN KINGDOM

living and loving like Jesus

As we engage the Scriptures and see our stories in this story of Jesus and his upside down kingdom, we encourage you to use the reading outline on the other side and the questions below to help you. We encourage you to find a journal and write your thoughts.

Read: Read the Scripture passage slowly. Don't rush. Pay attention what stands out for you and what questions get stirred up. Read it again.

Reflect: What does this Scripture say about who Jesus is and what his kingdom is like? What does it say about what it means to be a disciple, follower, apprentice of Jesus? What is the Spirit saying to you (and to OCC) through this Scripture?

Pray: Listen to what God is saying to you through this Scripture and respond to God in prayer. What do you want to say to God? What do you want to ask God? Pray your thoughts, desires, feelings, needs, worries, hopes.

Live: What is one way you can live into what God is saying to you through this Scripture? How will you "get into action" by practicing trust and obedience?
